They Hope Soon to Be Recognized in That Attitude. residents in New York were considerably worked up over the report that Thomas Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban revolutionary party in this country, intended to ask the United States government to recognize the recently orbelligerent rights to the insurgents.

President Palma, when seen yesterday afternoon, said that such an announcement was premature, as the provincia government was not yet thoroughly organized and the insurgents were not in possession of a seaboard town. While he would not disclose his intentions, it was quite evident that he believed that the United States would at the proper time recognize the attitude of belligerency assumed by the insurgents.

Senor De Traifello, Spanish consul, said that Spain would not give up the fight until the insurrection should be absolutely Troops are now on the way from Spain, continued the consul, "and when the dead-ly rainy season ends the last blow will be given to the insurrection.

"There will not be time to talk of belligerent rights, to obtain which they must prove that they have all the conditions required by international law, which is so strictly observed by all civilized countries in the family of nations."

A Hint to Gilkeson. A letter containing the signatures of sev-

Ex-Governor Campbell was called out and Ex-Governor Campbell was called out and given an ovation, when he made the most vigorous speech for the Monroe doctrine, and insisted that as this resolution had been offered it should be adopted. He insisted that it was not partisan, and it could not be interpreted as reflecting on the federal administration. eral administration. The resolution was then adopted, with only two or three dissenting votes.

SUNK IN THE CHANNEL.

Narrow Escape From a Terrible Marine Disaster.

Particulars which have been obtained re garding the collision Tuesday afternoon between the freighter Lyon of the Newhaven (Eng.) and Dieppe line and the passenger steamer Seaford of the same line, by which the latter, with 255 passengers and a crew of forty-two on board, was sunk, show that the Seaford, which left Dieppe at 1:30 p.m., was struck by the Lyon on the port

The Seaford immediately began to fill and sank twenty minutes after having been orders to promptly lower the boats, and the passengers were so reassured by the officers that there was not the slightest panic at

The Lyon had her stem stove in by the collision; but, she was in no danger of sink-ing, and ran alongside the Seaford, where-upon the passengers and crew of the sink-ing vessel clambered on board the freight board the Seaford, but only one of them, a Miss Flynn of New York, was slightly injured. Miss Flynn was able to travel to London today.

The passengers lost all their baggage.
Some of the American passengers value their property lost on board of the Seaford at from $5,000 to $100.

SUBURBAN NEWS

There is a general sentiment in Anacostia, and also in Southeast Washington that the Navy Yard bridge should be patrolled, with a view to preventing wouldture as a place for making their exit from this world. It is on the draw only that these rash acts are committed, and it is believed that arrangements could be made without much trouble to have this place

It is believed to be quite certain that the tris believed to be quite certain that the bridge can be thoroughly looked after in the daytime by the bridgekeeper, whose business is now only to open and close the draw for passing vessels, and it frequently happens that he does not have to do this more than once in a week, the rest of the day being practically entirely at his own disposal.

A delightful reception was given last night by Dr. A. M. Green and his wife at their home on Jefferson street to Dr. Green's class in the Anacostia M. E. Sunday school. The grounds were handsomely illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and the interior of the residence was decorated with cut flowers and growing plants. Those present were the Misses Ida Linger, Stella Fort, Ella Smith, Ada Anderson, Laura Anderson, Nettie Anderson, May Hallowell, Mary McLean, Edith Pyles, May Pyles, Emma Bowen and Sadle Pumphrey, Miss Nettle Drummond, Miss S. An immense turtle was caught this morning by Messrs. George French and Charles Goldsborough in the Anacostia river near the draw of the Navy Yard bridge. The turtle was the largest seen in this section for many years and attracted great attention.

CARLIN SPRINGS.

One of the most delightful entertainments of the season was given last evening by Gen. and Mrs. S. S. Burdett for their granddaughter, Miss Juliet Graham, at their handsome residence, "Thorpe Villa," on Maple avenue, which was brilliantly illuminated by Chinese lanterns. The guests were received by Mrs. Burdett, assisted by Dyer of Washington. One of the principal features of the evening was the introducfeatures of the evening was the Introduction of an interesting pastime—"flower conundrums." The violin playing of Mr. C. W. Curtis was also much enjoyed and a Virginia reel was danced. Refreshments were served, and farewells were reluctantly said at a late hour. The board of directors of the Agricultural Society held a meeting at the fair grounds yesterday and transacted a large amount of business relating to the arrangements for the coming exhibition. The building committee reported that the sta-bles and sheds had been completed and asked to be discharged, but, as the new wells had not been entirely finished, the committee will be in charge until they are finished. The committee on grounds reported that the contract for whitewashing had been awarded to George Patterson; for furnishing straw, to Wm, H. Rabbitt, and for hauling exhibits to and from the railroad station, to W. C. Fowler. The feed store has not yet been let and is in the hands of the committee. This committee was directed to arrange the accommoda-tions for the press, so that reporters will not be annoyed by outsiders. It was de-cided to build a sprinkler, and Mr. J. J. cided to build a sprinkler, and Mr. J. J. Higgins was appointed to attend to the matter. On motion of Mr. Lee Offutt, it was decided that the committee on races should appoint a clerk. It was also decided to send the same committee to the Marlboro fair to solicit entries. MARYLAND POPULISTS.

Editor Dunning Attacked by Rev. Walter Vrooman. The Maryland populist state convention met at Baltimore yesterday with about fifty delegates present. Rev. Walter Vrooman called the convention to order at 11 o'clock, and Samuel C. Heirst was chosen temporary chairman. A sharp contest arose over the organization of committees, particularly that on resolutions. Mr. N. A. Dunning, editor of the Watchman, national organ of the labor party, urged that the platform be confined to true populist principles, and that it embrace not more than three short and clear planks. Rev. Walter Vrooman, representing the Dunning responded that he had said, casually, that the old parties were so strongly entrenched that it was useless to nominate a populist ticket.

It developed that Dunning headed the element favorable to a plank for free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, while Rev. Vrooman represented the element favorable to government ownership of railways, telegraphs, etc., along socialistic lines.
